CEMEX UPGRADED BY FITCH RATINGS

MONTERREY, MEXICO. JULY 28, 2015.– CEMEX, S.A.B. de C.V. (“CEMEX”) (NYSE: CX) announced today that it received an upgrade from Fitch Ratings to the Issuer Default Ratings (IDRs) to BB- from B+.

According to Fitch Ratings, “the upgrade is supported by the strengthening of CEMEX’s capital structure during the past two years due to the conversion of about $820 million of convertible bonds to equity plus the refinancing of around $8.6 billion of debt that has lowered the company’s annual interest expense by approximately $200 million per year. Also factored into the improvement is the U.S. cement market, which has more than offset weakness in other divisions.”

“We are pleased with the upgrade received from Fitch Ratings, which is in line with our plan of returning to an investment grade capital structure,” said Fernando A. Gonzalez, CEMEX Chief Executive Officer. “We continue making progress in our operating and financial strategies as demonstrated in our first half of 2015 results and the recently announced commitments for the refinancing of our bank debt.”

Additionally to the upgrade of CEMEX’s IDRs, Fitch also upgraded the national scale to A-(mex) from BBB (mex) and the short-term national scale rating to F2 (mex) from F3(mex), which will allow CEMEX to potentially access the institutional Mexican bond market. The rating outlook remains stable.
