Today, CEMEX, S.A.B. de C.V. (“CEMEX”) (NYSE: CX) informed the Mexican Stock Exchange (Bolsa Mexicana de Valores) that it has filed a new Registration Statement on Form F-6 (“Form F-6”) with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) to register additional American Depositary Shares (“ADSs”) under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). Each Form F-6 may only register a limited number of ADSs; and once that number of ADSs has been issued pursuant to the relevant Form F-6, a new Form F-6 must be filed with the SEC in order to register the continued issuance of new ADSs. CEMEX’s filing of this Form F-6 was necessary, as CEMEX’s prior Form F-6 was nearing depletion. It is important to note that new ADSs are issued each time CPOs are transferred from the Mexican market to the U.S. market – so that the movement of the same CPOs back and forth between the two markets can deplete the stock of ADSs available to be issued on a Form F-6 (with no increase in CEMEX’s outstanding capital stock). Similarly, filing a new Form F-6 to increase the number of ADSs that may be issued in the future in no way increases or otherwise affects the amount of CEMEX’s outstanding capital stock. Therefore, in order to continue to facilitate cross-border trading of CEMEX’s CPOs and ADSs, thereby increasing their liquidity, CEMEX has filed a new Form F-6 to allow the continued issuance of new ADSs (as CEMEX has done in the past and as is routine among companies, such as CEMEX, with active ADS programs).
